

Faversham

It's all here

Shopping around

Brogdale

The home of the National Fruit Collections. Brogdale's Market Place has a good selection of shops offering fresh produce, plants, gifts, ciders, flowers and soft furnishings. There is also a café specialising in hot and cold food using fresh, local produce.

Standard Quay

A ten minute walk from the town centre in a creekside setting, Standard Quay includes a garden centre, tea room, shops selling homeware and antiques. There is a flea market every Sunday.

Macknade

Clustered around the award winning store selling fine food and drink on the outskirts of Faversham, is a wine merchant, fishmonger, plant centre, beauty therapist, antiques market and on-site café.

Unwind

Fun in Faversham

In the centre of town, Faversham Pools offers year-round swimming with the added summer-time bonus of three outdoor pools.

For a charming evening out, the town centre Royal Cinema shows the latest films at competitive prices.

Families love visiting the Fleur de Lis Museum which brings to life the history of Faversham.

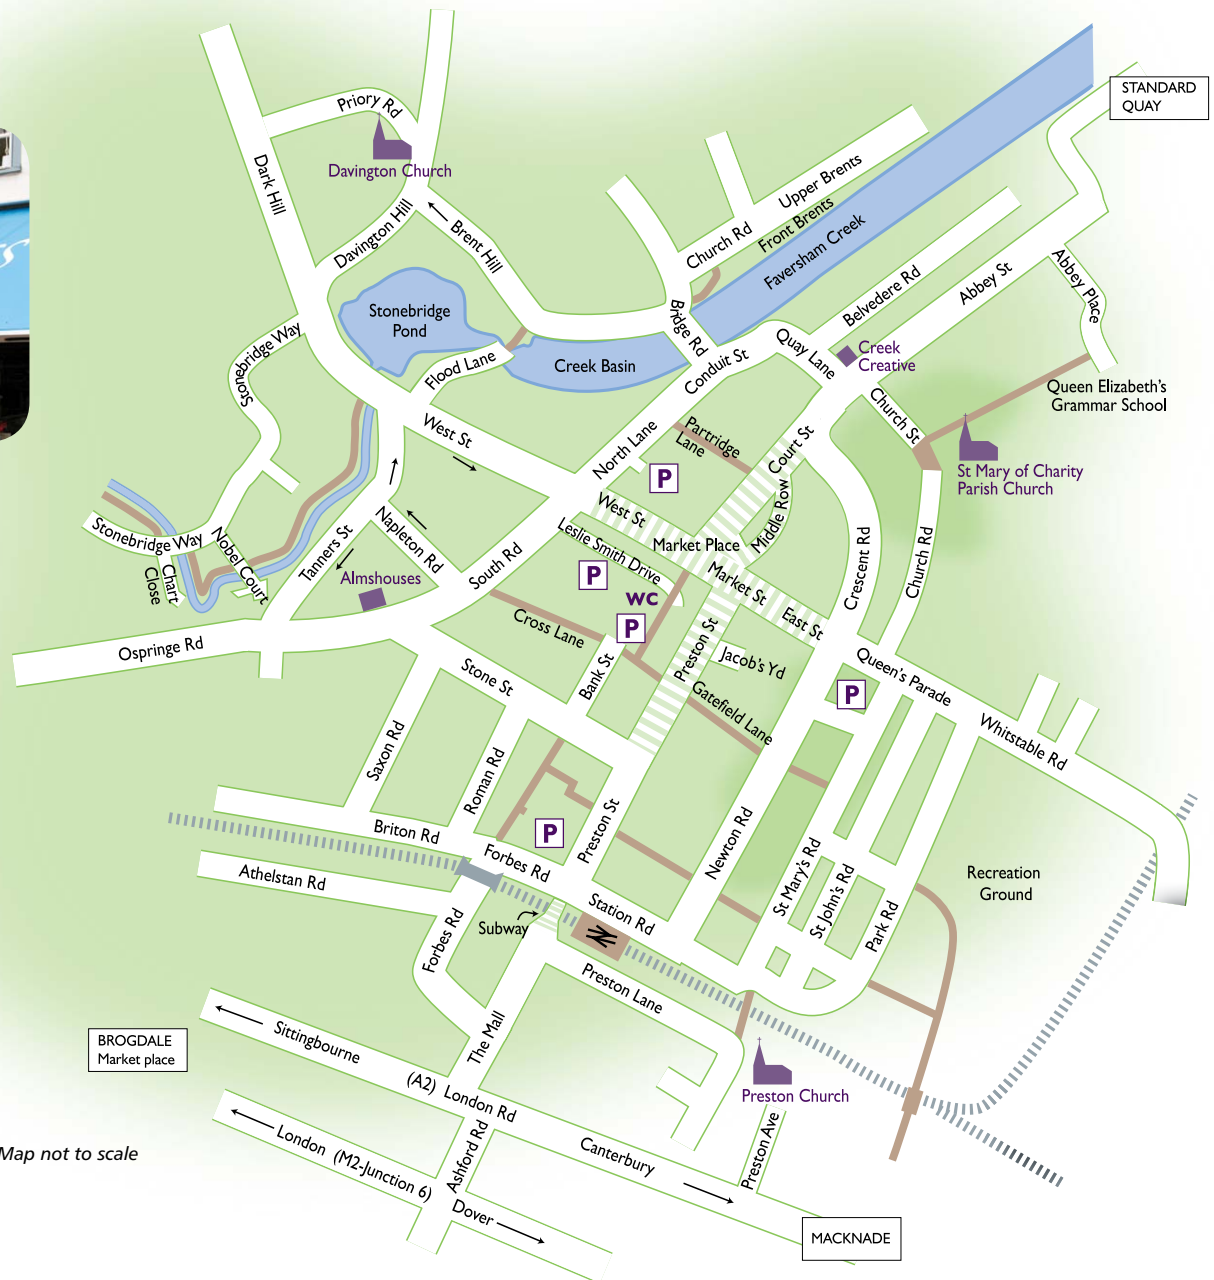

The town boasts plenty of playgrounds and outdoor spaces along with the Queen Elizabeth Jubilee Centre with its indoor play area.

For visitors who enjoy culture, Creek Creative's gallery hosts regular displays of local art and photography.

“If only I could see Faversham and the charming country lanes again.”

Marlon Brando, who was a frequent visitor to the area.

Town centre

Shop

Faversham is a picturesque, market town boasting many historic buildings and a lovely market place.

Its wide range of shops – many independently owned – means Faversham is ideal for all your needs, from quality food and drink to homeware, gifts and essential services.

The thriving centre has a market on Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays selling fresh produce, plants, clothing and crafts.

Buying ingredients for Sunday lunch, posting a letter, looking for a present or stocking up on light bulbs?

It's all here.

Eat and drink

Faversham has a wide selection of places to eat and drink, many using fresh local produce. Take-aways, cafés and restaurants leave you spoilt for choice.

Looking for a cooked breakfast, coffee and cake, a delicious light lunch or a great meal out with family and friends?

It's all here.

Easy to get to

Faversham's railway station is next to the town centre and there are regular bus services. There is ample town centre parking and the town is easily reached from the A2, M2, M20, A251 and Thanet Way.
